Of the Eclipses this year.

THere will be five Eclipses this present year 1665, three of the Sun, and two of the Moon, yet we in England shall onely see those two of the Moon.

The first whereof will be on Saturday, the 21 of January. It beginneth with us at Cambridge, 54 min. past four in the morning: the greatest darkness is at six; and the end at six min. past seven. The whole time of this Eclipse is two hours and twelve minutes: and the digits eclipsed are five, wanting 7 min.

The second of the Moon is upon Sunday the 16 day of July, and is a very small Eclipse. It beginneth at 47 minutes past 11 at night, and by 25 minutes past 12 it will be quite over. So that the whole time of this Eclipse is but 38 minutes, and will not be much discerned.

Times prohibiting marriage this year.

MArriage comes in on the 13 day of January, and at Septuagesima sunday it is out again until Lowsunday; at which time it comes in again, and goes not out till Rogation-sunday: thence it is forbidden untill Trinitie-sunday: from whence it is unforbidden till Advent-sunday; but then it goes out, and comes not in again till the 13 day of January next following.

The Anatomie of Mans bodie.

Astra regunt homines, sed regit astra Deus.

then heretofore.

Days after the Change, or Full, the Moon is South at

0	1	2	3	4	5	6	7
12	12 48	1 36	2 24	3 12	4 0	4 48	5 36

Days after either of the Quarters, the Moon is South at

0	1	2	3	4	5	6	7
6.6 48	7 36	8 24	9 12	10 0	10 48	11 36

First find the new moon, full, or quarter, in the kalender; then count how many days are past either of those, and under the same number of days past, you shall here see the time that the moon will be south the same day: Then look for the Haven or Port you desire, and where the hours and quarters stand before the time above found: But water so many hours and quarters before the time above found: But where the hours and quarters stand after the place, there it is high-water so long after the time first found. As for example:

The Moon being five days past the change, and so five days old, I find in the table, that five days after the change the Moon is South at four a clock, which makes full sea at Quinborough, Southampton, &c. But at Plimouth, Dover, Harwich, an hour and an half sooner: that is, at two a clock and thirty minutes: but at London, Tinmouth, and Amsterdam, three hours after.
